

6th December 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

As you are aware Nursery and Reception will be putting on a performance of 'The Little Lost Snowflake' next week Wednesday 13th December.

Parents of children who attend nursery in the morning please come to the 10:30am performance.

Parents of children who attend nursery in the afternoon please come to the 2pm performance.

Parents of children who attend nursery full time can come to either performance.

Each class will be dressing in different clothing based on what their part in the performance is. Nursery will be playing the role of the snowflakes. Please could you send you child to school on the 13th dressed in white, light blue, light grey or any clothing with snowflakes on.

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you there!

Miss Charlotte Hamilton
