Reading

Your child will bring home a reading book and a reading record. Please read with your child at least three times a week and add a comment in the reading record. Please bring your child's reading book and reading record to school every day so that the book can be changed regularly.

Maths

Please practise the 2, 3, 4, 5, 8 and 10 times tables in order, out of order and division facts.

Please spend 20 minutes per week on the Times Table Rockstars website.

All children have been given log in details but please ask your child's teacher if you need them reissued.

English

Read the poem of The Pied Piper, this is the same story that we read in class but a different version by a different author, then do the task below.

You can write on a piece of paper or fill in the document below and hand it in on Google Classroom.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin
by Robert Browning

Rats!

They fought the dogs and killed the cats,
And bit the babies in the cradles,
And ate the cheeses out of the vats.
And licked the soup from the cook's own ladles,
Split open the kegs of salted sprats,
Made nests inside men's Sunday hats,
And even spoiled the women's chats,
By drowning their speaking
With shrieking and squeaking
In fifty different sharps and flats...
Into the street the Piper stept,
Smiling first a little smile,
As if he knew what magic slept
In his quiet pipe the while;
Then, like a musical adept,
To blow the pipe his lips he wrinkled,
And green and blue his sharp eyes twinkled...
And out of the houses the rats came tumbling.
Great rats, small rats, lean rats, brawny rats,
Brown rats, black rats, grey rats, tawny rats,
Fathers, mothers, uncles, cousins,
Cocking tails and pricking whiskers,
Families by tens and dozens,
Brothers, sisters, husbands, wives—
Followed the Piper for their lives.
From street to street he piped advancing,
And step for step they followed dancing,
Until they came to the river Weser
Wherein all plunged and perished!

Match the words to the definitions:

plunged

died

perished

fell

wrinkled

creased

Look at the first verse, write down three things the rats did that was bad:

Using information from the poem, tick one box in each row to show whether each statement is true or false.

	True	False
The rats were a nuisance.
The rats were scared of the piper.
The rats swam away.
