Spelling Objective/Common Exception Words

Use these common exception words to fill the gaps in the sentences.

Animals and their Habitats:

Because of global warming, areas of the world that used to be cold are now heating up. Different kinds of animals that used to eat grass and every kind of plant are now having that their homes and food destroyed. This could be reversed if we find other ways of producing the things we need. If it continues the way it is, this will prove very bad for the earth.
